

Pete Goodall, KBCS F.M., December 2007: Top Ten Bluegrass Recordings of 2007.

Big Darlin' was rated the fourth best bluegrass recording of 2007, and Dave Keenan's "Sometimes Dig for Taters" was rated the sixth best bluegrass song of the year.

"What a group! They have three of the most talented singers along with two outstanding sidemen."

Here is Pete's List:

The Infamous Stringdusters: Fork In The Road, Sugar Hill-

John Reischman & The Jaybirds: Stellar Jays, Corvus

The Downtown Mountain Boys: Big Darlin', Self

Tony Trischka: Double Banjo Bluegrass Spectacular, Rounder

Larry Sparks: The Last Suit You Wear,

The Dappled Grays: Doin' My Job, Self

Steve Gulley: Sounds Like Home, Lonesome Day

Steep Canyon Rangers: Lovin' Pretty Women, Rebel

The Bluegrass Brothers: Appalachian Memories, Hay Holler

Larry Cordle: Took Down and Put Up, Lonesome Day